A CALL TO PRESERVE: CREATING A LASTING MEMORIAL AT THE PENNHURST STATE SCHOOL

“The great potential contribution of preservation to American life is not in the saving of structures per se but in the transformation of the values by which we live.”
— Roderick S. French

Pennhurst State School has been sold and there are fears that what remains of this historic and powerful place will be sacrificed to the onslaught of suburban sprawl. The long endured policy of forgetting about Pennhurst — its residents, its staff, its story — cannot persist.

Join us in ensuring preservation and adaptive re-use at Pennhurst. To learn more about Pennhurst, sign the petition, and even share your own story, please visit:
